BHARATANATYAM ARCHANA NAIR

Archana Nair, living in the United States, has started learning Bharathanatyam from the age of 5. Later she continued her further studies in dance learning Mohiniyattom Kuchipudi and Bharathanatyam from Mydhili teacher in Trivandrum. In 1999, Archana was awarded the title 'Nirtharani' during an International dance festival held in Chicago and won the 'Kanaka Chilanka'. In 2002, she won the title 'Kalathilakam' at the Fokana convention (Federation of Kerala Associations in North America), and she was also crowned "Miss Fokana" in 2004. She has performed at various stages across USA and Canada. During the end of 2005, she got the opportunity to perform on 8 different stages throughout USA and Canada with Malayalam cine stars (Kavya Madhavan, Kunchako Boban, Biju Narayanan, Jyotsna, Kottayam Nazir, Lalu Alex) In 2005, she became a TV anchor hosting 2 shows on Kairali TV, American Cafe and Tharattu. After returning from India, she got the opportunity to work with Asianet USA and anchor various shows. In 2006, Archana won the title of "Miss American Malayalee." At school, she is also highly involved in speech and debate, and she has won several competition in those activities.
