

The official cultural exchange centre of Kerala

BHARAT BHAVAN
Dept. of Culture, Government of Kerala

from Moscow
with Dance...

Bharathanatyam Performance by
Lekshmi Reghunath
A Keralite Dancer from Moscow, Russia

on 2nd January 2015 Friday, 6.30 pm
at Bharat Bhavan Thirumuttam
Near police Ground, Thycaud, Trivandrum

In Association with

Indian Cultural Promotion Society, Moscow (ICPS, Moscow)
All Moscow Malayalee Association (AMMA Moscow), Keralatoday.com

Lekshmi Reghunath

Lekshmi Reghunath now a 10th grade student at the Embassy Of India School, Moscow is also a passionate classical dancer.

She began her training in dance at the age of six under the guidance of Natalia Obalenskaya in Moscow. Lekshmi was initiated into dance through the study of Bharathanatyam. Later she extended her training to Kuchipudi and Kathak too. She is learning Kuchipudi from Irina Strahavenko and her initial training in Kathak was from Ekaterina Sharma and later from Guru Raghav Raj Bhatt. Lekshmi practices dance during her short visits to India under the guidance of Smt. Kalamandalam V.Mydhilli. She also attends the annual dance workshops by Guru Kishore Mosalikanti, held in Moscow.

Lekshmi now concentrates mostly on Kuchipudi and Bharathanatyam and has performed on numerous stages across Moscow and India.

She has performed in various dance festivals in Moscow and India. Lekshmi is the first prize winner in Bharathanatyam and Kuchipudi in the International Indian Dance Competition, Moscow.

She has done a solo Kuchipudi recital in Trivandrum organized by Bharat Bhavan and a solo Bharathanatyam recital organized by JNCC(Branch of ICCR) in Moscow. She has also performed in the Ananthapuri Nritha Sangeetholsavam and Indian Dance Festival in Tver, Russia.

Lekshmi has also performed with renowned Bharathanatyam Dancer Kalakshetra PT Narendran and she has also performed in the Attukal Temple Festival, Trivandrum.

A passionate dancer, Lekshmi stands out with the purity of expressions and intrinsic charisma.

BHARAT BHAVAN
Dept. of Culture, Government of Kerala
bharatbhavan Kerala@gmail.com

Thripiti, Near Police ground, Thycaud P.O,
Trivandrum - 695 014
Tel: 0471 2321747, 2320198